Ray Lear is the real thing, genuinely heroic.
Someone we can "honestly" trust and believe in.

“If Illinois isn't the most corrupt state in the United States, it's certainly one hell of a competitor.” - Robert Grant, Chicago FBI Chief. December 9, 2008.

The only way to come back from two successive governors scanded with corruption, is to run an “outside” populist candidate, so above reproach, that no one would question his integrity.

In the same way Jesse Ventura grabbed the attention of Minnesota voters, I can carry an Illinois election. The voters want “change” ... I'm it.

Raymond Lear:

40 years old. Young, intelligent, dynamic, excellent orator, driven. The embodiment of honor and civic duty.

- Democratic Candidate for Representative in Congress, Illinois 5th District, 2002.
- Corporate Criminal Investigator
- Developer of the Command Performance Executive Leadership Course.
- Former Commander of The Chicago Guardian Angels, the 2nd largest chapter in the international alliance.
- Naval Youth Programs Officer. Spearheaded a Chicago initiative with the Navy and civilian instructors to get inner-city youth off the streets, and away from gangs and drugs. Personally responsible for mentoring thousands of at risk kids.

Another “standard fair candidate” will get soundly beaten in the next election, by any independent just for the sake of change... Lest we forget the “impossible” Republican victory in Chicago's 5th Congressional District when Dan Rostenkowski was indicted. This time, both the major parties have recent black eyes, anything short of a white knight riding in to save the day will be defeated.

Considering the recent events, I am the most viable candidate available... Let's discuss the possibilities.

Sincerely,

Raymond Lear
